CHICAGO FAIR HOUSING OUTREACH, INTAKE AND TESTING COORDINATOR

Job Summary

Chicago Lawyers’ Committee for Civil Rights, a not-for-profit organization with a long and successful history of civil rights enforcement and advocacy, seeks applicants for a Chicago Fair Housing Outreach, Intake and Testing Coordinator position. The Coordinator will engage in community outreach, process client intakes and oversee a testing program to identify housing discrimination in Chicago as a member of the Equitable Community Development and Housing team.

Our Equitable Community Development and Housing (ECDH) team provides legal and policy support to community-based organizations and coalitions in historic communities of color advocating for healthy, thriving communities and fighting gentrification and displacement. We also utilize impact litigation, policy advocacy, and community education to combat housing discrimination and barriers to opportunity. The Coordinator will work with ECDH staff to document and address housing discrimination based on race, ethnicity, and other protected classes.

Our Organization

Founded in 1969, Chicago Lawyers’ Committee for Civil Rights works to secure racial equity and economic opportunity for all. We provide legal support through partnerships with the private bar and collaborate with grassroots organizations and other advocacy groups to implement community-based reforms. We have a diverse staff of 19 and a 21-member board that includes leaders from law firms, corporations, government, and philanthropy. Racial equity is central to our external advocacy, along with our internal operations. Chicago Lawyers’ Committee has achieved significant litigation and policy reform victories throughout our history with support from over 40 member law firms. Pro bono partnerships are central to our business model and delivery of legal assistance.
