

Deutsche Bank Photos

Examples of poorly maintained Deutsche bank-owned homes in predominantly African American and Latino neighborhoods.

Baltimore MD – Trash and debris

Capitol Heights, MD – Broken window

Capitol Heights, MD – Dead leaves and damaged fence

Capitol Heights, MD – Unsecured door

Maywood, IL – Overgrown shrub and damaged fence

Milwaukee, WI – Obstructed gutters

Muskegon Heights, MI – Dead shrubbery

Muskegon Heights, MI – Trash and leaves

Temple Hills, MD – Overgrown grass

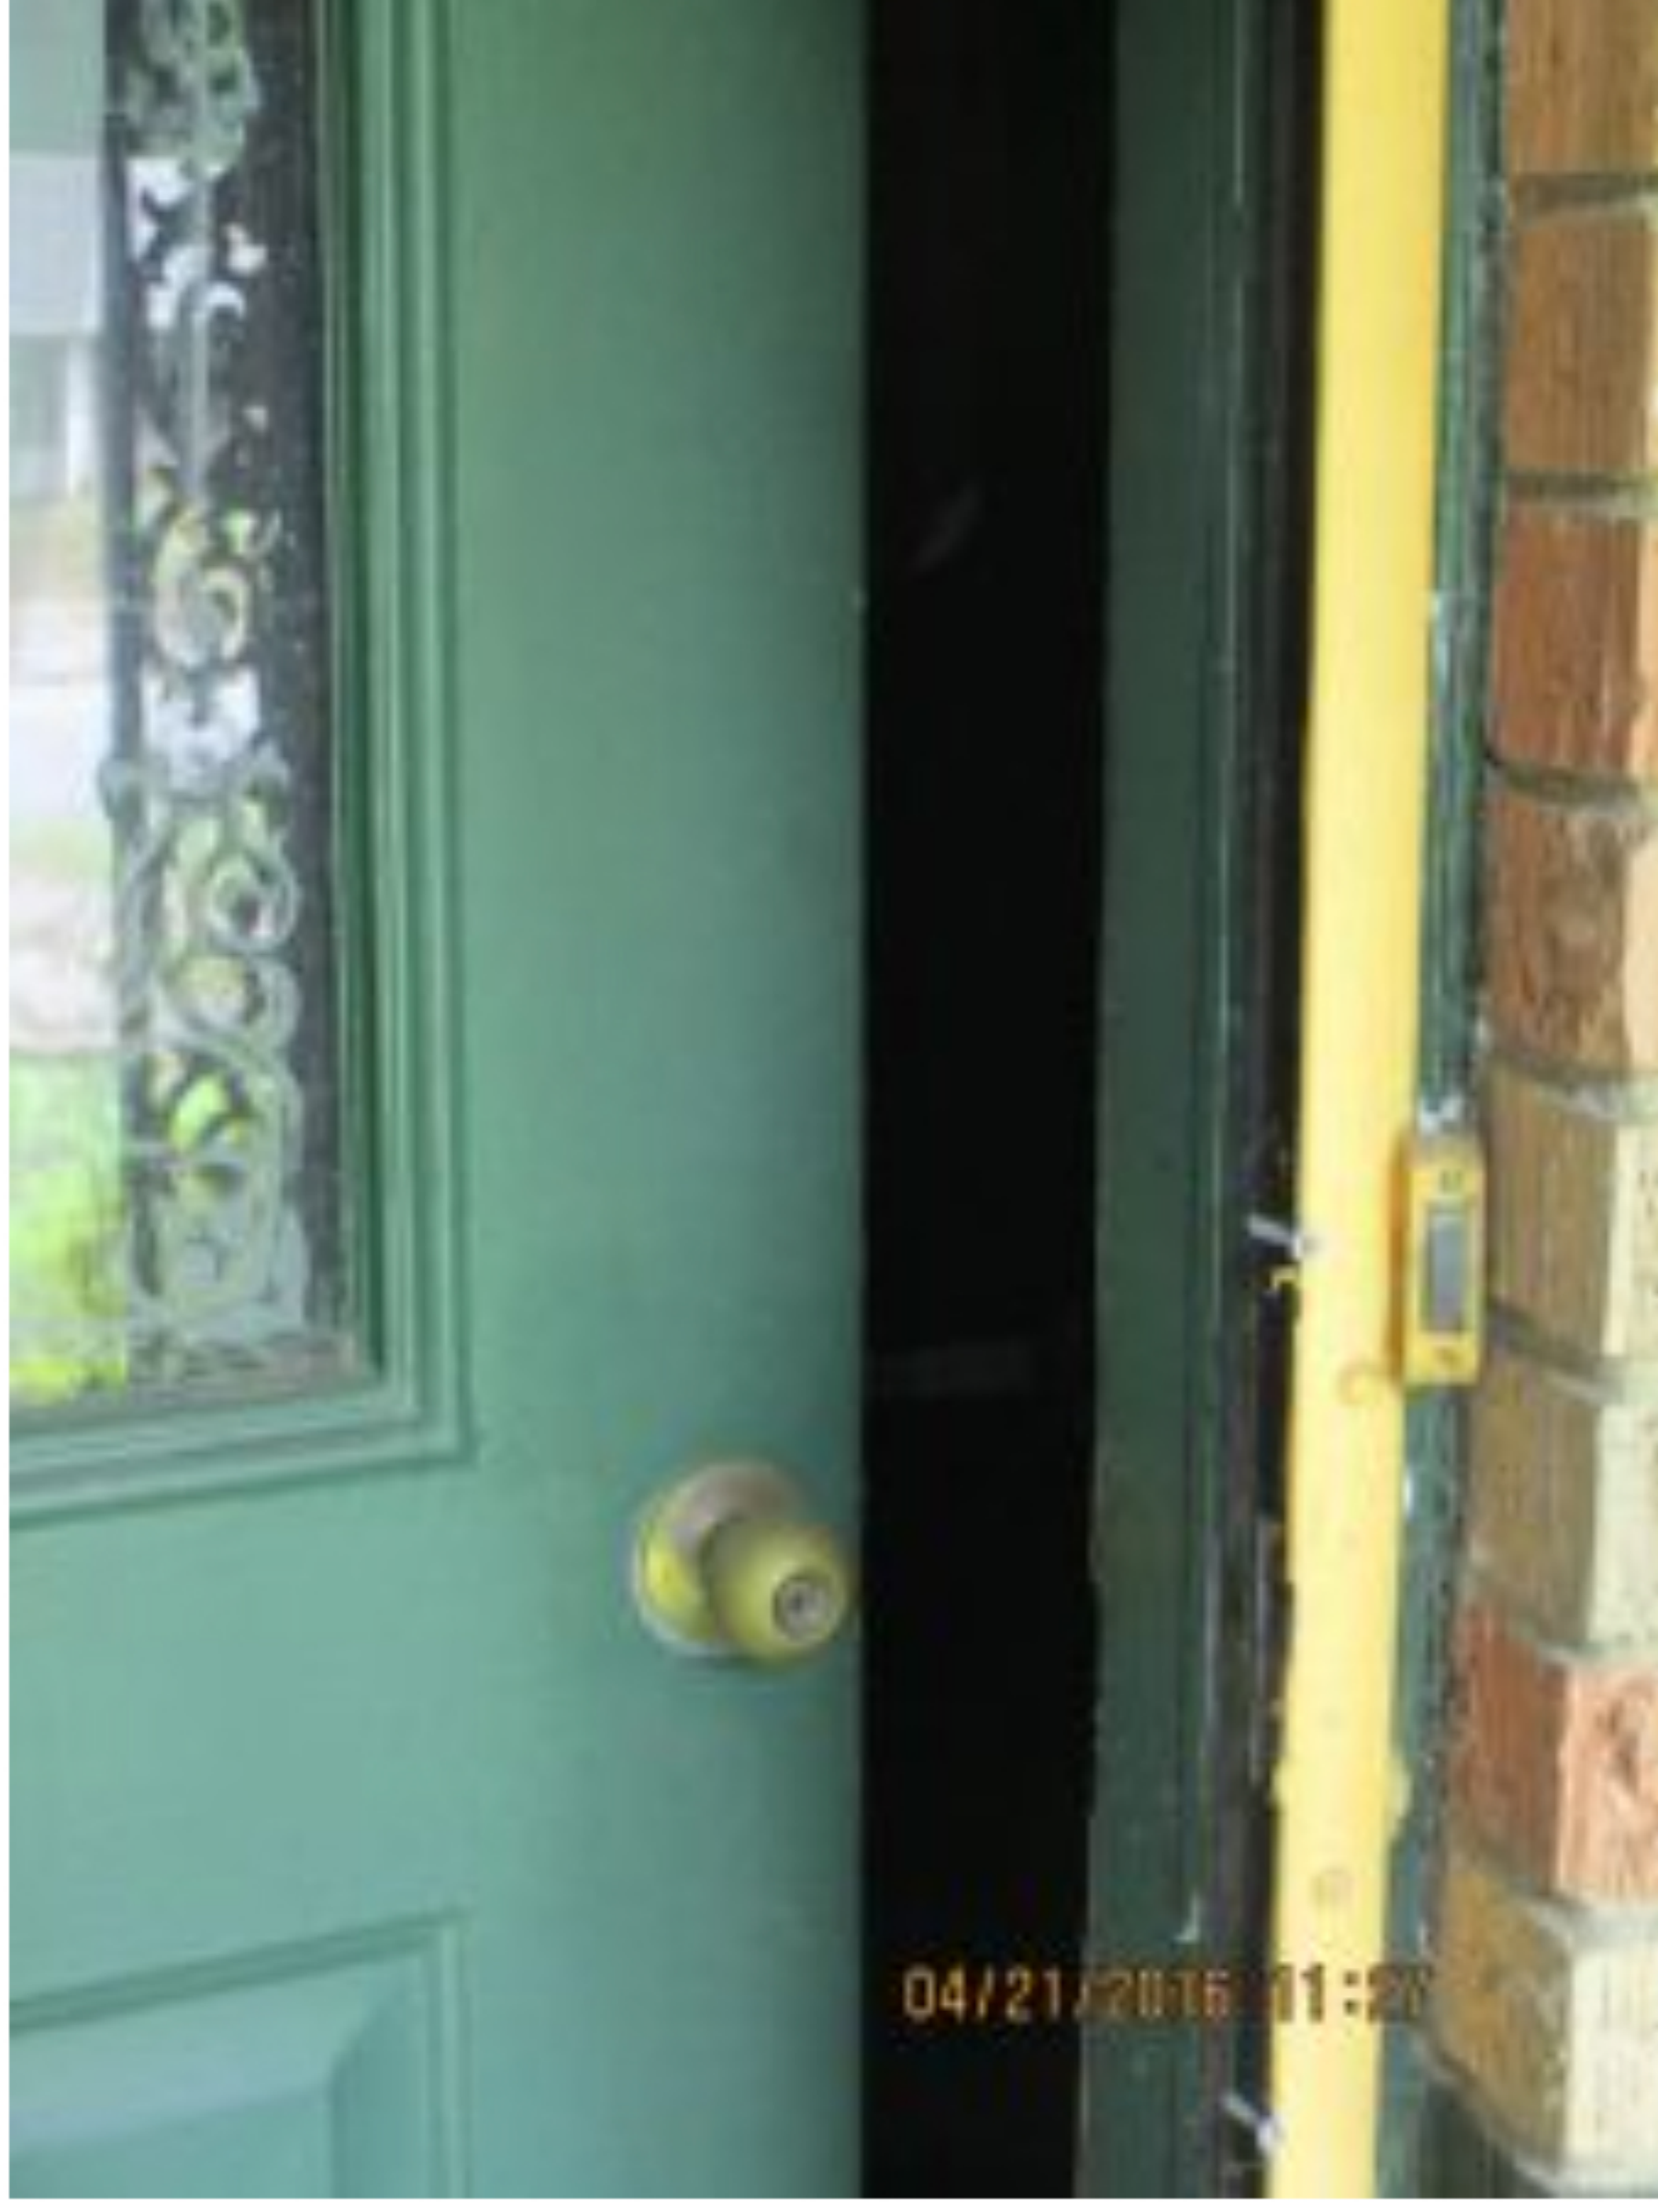

Unsecured screen door at a Deutsche Bank-owned property in Orlando, FL

Unsecured, dirty pool and obstructed gutters at a Deutsche Bank property in Orlando

This is the back of a Deutsche Bank property in Memphis, with overgrown, untrimmed grass

Unsecured doors are common at Deutsche Bank properties. Here's an example from Memphis.

An open door and piles of trash were found at this Deutsche Bank property in a non-White neighborhoods in Memphis.

A pile of trash from a Deutsche Bank property in one of Indianapolis' non-white neighborhoods.

Overgrown grass from a non-white property owned by Deutsche Bank in Indianapolis.

Weeds and untrimmed grass at a property owned by Deutsche Bank in a non-white neighborhood in Providence, RI.

This home in a nice, African American neighborhood in Prince George's County, MD has been completely neglected by Deutsche Bank.

These signs are from a Deutsche Bank-owned house in Prince George's County, MD.

Overgrown grass at a Deutsche Bank-owned house in Capitol Heights, MD (Predominantly African American)

Unraked leaves in Prince George's County

Broken and open windows at a Deutsche Bank Property in a non-white neighborhood of Miami, FL.

Meanwhile, Deutsche Bank properties in White neighborhoods, like this one, were well-maintained.